ONE VISIT AT THE TOWN

1 Spain square

The square is an example of manchego popular plan of 16th century. It is flanked by an arcade.

2 Millennial olive tree

Situated in the Spain square, is a magnificent natural monument. Tradition tells us that it was planted in 900 by Muslims.

3 Church of San Pedro Apóstol

It was built in a late Gothic style, when the Daimiel population grew in the 16th century. It deserves a special mention, the door located at the foot of the nave was built in a Renaissance style.

4 Municipal Market

The architect Miguel Fisac designed this building in the mid-twentieth century which was inspired by the old quinterías of La Mancha.

5 Daimiel County Museum

Located in an old "labor house", it brings us closer to the history of Daimiel and the region, from its origins in prehistory to the present moment. It is the starting point for the visit to the archaeological site of Motilla Azuer.

6 Church of the convent of the Minimas's Nuns

Built in the last decade of the 17th century, it follows the style of the convent architecture of that moment.

7 Miguel Fisac housing building

For the construction of this unique building, Miguel Fisac used one of his best-known patents: flexible concrete, hence the padded appearance on the balconies.

8 Church of Santa María la Mayor

From the end of the 14th century, this Gothic building overlooks the Parterre gardens through its Renaissance door. The north facade of the temple is the one that conserves the clearest vestiges of the Gothic.

9 House Museum our father Jesús Nazareno

The steps and attributes of the brotherhood of the same name that parade in the Holy Week of Daimiel, declared a Festival of Regional Tourist Interest, are exposed.

10 Church of La Paz

The current hermitage dates from the seventeenth century, responding to the style of "Carmelite architecture", as it was part of the convent of the different Carmelite foundations established in Daimiel.

11 Water Interpretation Center

Miguel Fisac designed this building in the fifties, it beign one of the references in Spanish architecture of the 20th century. It is the starting point for the visit to Las Tablas de Daimiel.

12 Chapel of San Roque

It was built in the second half of the 16th century, highlighting the Mudéjar coffered ceiling on the main altar.

13 Chapel of San Isidro

It dates from the 17th century and was known as the hermitage of the "Ecce Homo".

14 Chapel of Cristo de la Luz

From the middle of the 18th century, its interior is defined as a hermitage with a Latin cross plan with a barrel vault and a dome covering the transept.

OUTSIDE THE URBAN AREA

15 Virgin of Las Cruces Sanctuary

(12 km from the urban area)
It was built in the 16th century on an older hermitage. The image of the Virgin of Las Cruces, patron saint of Daimiel, is the oldest invocation of the city dating from the 15th century.

MOTILLA DEL AZUER ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE

18

It is situated in the fertile plain of the Azuer River, approximately 10 km from the town of Daimiel. It is an archaeological site from the Bronze Age (2200-1350 b.C.). It is the most documented Motilla and the only one that can be visited nowadays.

The fortified area has a diameter of approximately 40 metres which is configured by a central tower, around which there are three concentric lines of boundary walls.

Within the archaeological site is the watering well, an impressive hydraulic structure which is more than 4000 years old.

The settlement area surrounding the fortification coincides with the necropolis, there are documented burials under the floor of various dwellings, around them and attached to the outer wall.
